

ROSS PATENT LAW OFFICE FAX TRANSMITTAL

FAXED: 6/6/05

From: John R. Ross, III
To : Brian R. Gordon

Subj: Patent Application 09/699,818

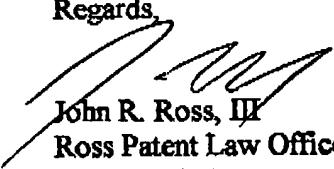

I am now faxing to you the office action response that was initially faxed to USPTO on 5/19/05.

Summary of events:

- 1) The office action response was 17 pages long including transmittal letter.
- 2) The first transmission occurred at 5/19/05 5:08:53 pm (see receipt no. 1). Only 13 pages of the 17 pages were successfully transmitted due to a communication error.
- 3) The remaining pages were sent at 5/19/05 5:17:36 pm (see receipt no. 2, labeled second transmission). The second transmission included a cover letter labeled "2cnd transmission" and the last 6 pages of the response.
- 4) A third transmission was sent at 5/19/05 5:45:03 pm (see receipt no. 3). The purpose of the third transmission was to send a Letter Correcting Fees Paid. I realized after sending the second transmission I inadvertently and by mistake only paid $125 for the fee for the amendment and extension of time (small entity amount). Applicant is no longer claiming small entity status. Therefore in the third transmission I authorized an additional $125 to be paid from our deposit account.

I hope this answers all questions. Please let me know if further explanation is required.

Regards,

John R. Ross, III
